MOONSHINE STILL CAPTURED IN HARLAN COUNTY

Revenue officers captured a fifty gallon copper still on Day's Branch in Harlan County, on last Friday, and destroyed about 250 gallons of beer. Dapfel Day and Henry Harris both men about twenty years of age were arrested charged with operating the still. It is said that Harris is an old offender, having been arrested when only 13 years of age on a "moonshining" charge. The boys are in the Pineville Jail.

COUNTY BOARD OF HEALTH

The County Board of Health of Knox County, Ky., composed of the following members, viz: Dr. Leslie Logan, Dr. John G. Tye, and Dr. C. L. Heath; Dr. G. H. Albright, appointed by the Fiscal Court of Knox County, and Judge J. D. Tuggle, County Judge of Knox County met in the County Court Room, at Harboursville, Ky., on July 9th, 1919 and reorganized the County Board of Health of Knox County.

At this meeting Judge J. D. Tuggle was elected President of the County Board of Health; and on motion of Dr. Leslie Logan, seconded by Dr. Tye, Dr. G. H. Albright was elected County Health Officer, unanimously.

On motion of Dr. C. L. Heath, the County Board of Health adopted the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Board of Health of Kentucky, to govern and guide this Board in the work of stamping out contagious and infectious diseases in Knox County.

The Board will make every effort to secure the co-operation of the citizenship of the County, and will seek their support in their efforts to protect the lives of the people of the County and especially the lives of children.

J. D. Tuggle, President Board of Health. G. H. Albright, Secretary and County Health Officer.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

There has been some complaint recently that people are not getting their copy of the Advocate. On enquiry last week it developed that at least in one case, the complaining party had received his letters but not his Advocate. The Editor will greatly appreciate it if the subscribers will also ask for their papers as well as letters, otherwise they are inclined to blame the Advocate for the non-receipt, or the paper is several days late. Please do this and save complaint.

NEW FEDERAL BUILDING

While Congressman J. M. Robison was in the city recently, the Advocate reporter gathered the following information in regard to the securing of a new Federal Building for Harboursville, or what is commonly called the new Post Office.

It appears that the sum of $5,000 is the amount allowed by Congress for a site for a Federal Building which should be 90 feet if on a corner and 130 feet if not on a corner.

The truth is that the Square either does not offer such a lot or the price of lots exceeds the $5,000 appropriation. The building will therefore most likely be built on one of the streets adjoining the Public Square and it would be well if some of our prominent business men would push the matter along to the end that the much needed new Post Office may be built as soon as possible. Our Congressman has taken every interest in the matter and those who have the improvement of Harboursville at heart may help things along by hunting up suitable lots.

STATION MAKES CHANGES

The Experiment Station has secured some new people on its staff and has shifted others. These changes and shifts are given below:

W. W. Dimock, Head of Department Veterinary Science, J. O. Barkman, Instructor in Dairy Manufactures, M. H. Kroft, Extension Specialist in Farm Management, J. C. Grimes, Assistant in Animal Husbandry, Mary E. Sweeney, Head of Department of Home Economics, Thomas Cooper, Director Extension Division, T. L. Bryant and Geoffrey Morgan, Assistant Directors of Extension A. J. Steiner, Instructor in Veterinary Science and N. R. Elliott, in charge of Extension Specialists.

WILL BUILD CREAMERY

A modern creamery is to be built at the Experiment Station for the use of students in the College of Agriculture. Special classes will be given instruction in making cheese butter and ice cream. These students who wish to specialize in the operation of creameries, ice cream plants and ice cream factories, will be given special courses. Short courses are planned for men and women who desire to become official cream testers in creameries and milk depots. The creamery will be under the directorship of Mr. J. O. Barkman who has been connected with the Dairy Department of the Ohio State University.

See What Carroll's Home County is Doing For Him.

What will Knox County Do for Her Distinguished Citizen?

In the Henry County Local, July 4th. in the center of the first page we find these statements. "If the people of Henry County could realize the distinction it would bring us to furnish the Governor of Kentucky they would, SIDE TRACK POLITICS, AND ALLOW COUNTY PRIDE TO CONTROL THEM AND GIVE JUDGE CARROLL THEIR UNITED AND ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT. Everybody meet next Monday in New Castle and let us show the people of Kentucky that John D. Carroll's home folks are solidly behind him'".

Has Henry County more pride than Knox County? Will we let Henry County do more to show Kentucky what it will do for her citizen, than the citizens of Knox County will do to bring distinction to their home County? Shall Henry County put Politics aside and allow County Pride to control them, and take from Knox County the distinction of furnishing the Governor of Kentucky? No! Knox County is as good as Henry County and better and we will show Henry county that we will stand with our citizen like red-blooded citizens, that we are, to support our citizen, Gov. James D. Black, on Saturday, August 2nd. man to man and bring the honor to Knox County of furnishing the Governor of Kentucky.

A PROPHECY ON KNOX COUNTY

The reserve power of the farmer does not lie so much in brawn and muscle as in the brains with which Providence has endowed him. Farming should be no more of a slapdash business than is the manufacture of shoes, auto tires or wooden nutmegs. The manufacturer does not create before he plans. He buys machinery which will save labor; he adopts a cost system which keeps him informed as to what each department and each article costs him to produce and the profit on the same. He does so because otherwise leaks will eat up his business and he will go to the business scrap pile.

The American farmer is coming more and more to adopt modern machinery, modern methods and to adapt himself to the spirit of progress which has touched all lines of human endeavor. He is beginning to look on farming as a business instead of a mere livelihood and his bank account forms one of his interesting and absorbing collections.

Knox County has much to develop but it is also true that we are beginning to develop our latent wealth. We are beginning to take an interest in scientific or demonstrated methods which have been proved superior to old methods. We are going much farther than we have gone. These hills of ours are going to produce hundreds of dollars per acre in fruit. There will be a canning outfit on most farms to save the surplus fruit and we can and shall grow the grapes and press out the juice which is sold over the counters of the drug stores.

We shall grow sweet clover and honey bees will fly from flower to flower humming over their work of creating wealth.

Sweet potato drying houses will be found on each farm and the silo for the milk producing ensilage. The hog that grunts his way to satisfied fatness will be a patrician, blue blooded, with a line of ancestors of which his owner will be proud. The Shorthorns will be no walt inferior in ancestry and the scrub cow will no longer be found in the land.

Chanticleer, who greets the rising sun with clarion call will be the proud progenitor of the 200 egg hen of the future and his barn will be like unto him.

Sheep and high class Angora goats will clip the herbage and bushe since it will be found they swell the bank account and Tiger, dear old Tiger, will be buried beneath a tombstone to mark his last resting place and in his stead will reign a Scotch sheep dog, useful for herding of all descriptions.

The roads of Knox County of which we speak with that becoming charity one uses toward the unfortunate, will have gained their self respect and will spread a broad, smooth surface for wagon and auto alike and we shall do all this because the farmer has brought his reserve power, the brain which Providence gave him, into full play and he has found that it pays. Pays in comfort, self respect, education, socially and financially.

BAPTIST INSTITUTE GETS $10,000 FOR EQUIPMENT

It will be a source of pleasure and interest to learn that thru the agency of the Baptist State Educational Society the Harboursville Baptist Institute has been endowed with the sum of $25,000 and $15,000 from the Home Board making a total of $40,000, payment of which shall extend over five years.

The appropriation is for the equipment of the institute and ordinary running expenses. As a result the boy's dormitory will be finished and two rooms and a front will be built on the Administration building. Further, the Institute will receive $300 more annually toward its current expenses.

The fund stated will be paid from the $75,000,000 the Baptist Church is raising in the South and the amount will undoubtedly be raised to something like $100,000 in the future thus giving Harboursville the benefit of another up-to-date educational center. The officials of the Institute are naturally elated over the good news and this elation should be felt by all citizens who have the future of the city at heart.

WAR MEMORIAL MOVEMENT IS ON

Kentucky is to erect on the campus of the University of Kentucky at Lexington a memorial building to the men and women of the State who gave their lives in the war with Germany. The University gives the site but the building is to be the property of the people of the State and will be built by them, tho the University faculty, students and alumni have expressed their intention of aiding in paying for the construction of the building and about $9,000 has been subscribed already among them in an incomplete campaign as the nucleus of the fund.

Some of the most prominent men and women of Kentucky are on the committee to raise this fund. This county, which sent its own share of men to the war, of course will give its proper quota for the building whenever that quota is determined and the matter finally presented to the people.

The Chairman of this Committee is Judge Edward W. Hines, Louisville, Ky.

A DEMONSTRATION FARM

Frank Hawn wants a Demonstration Farm at Harboursville or near enough for farmers to go and see results of scientific and intensive cultivation. Thus far he has not made much progress in interesting people in the scheme but he has the right idea in his bonnet. Most people are from Missouri so far as new ideas are concerned, but when they can be shown that they can make money by following a certain line of work, they will generally take hold and try it out. First the progressives and later on the tag-tails. Thus do we progress.

Dan Smith and Demp Smith, of Goose Creek, were in town with eggs Tuesday.

GIVEN ONE YEAR AND $500 FINE

In the Federal Court at London, Ky. Wednesday, C. T. Clelland, of this city, was given one year in the prison at Atlanta and a fine of $5000 in connection with certain alleged discrepancies in bank statements made a few years ago. Mr. Clelland's many friends here regret very much that he has been made to suffer this penalty and an effort will be made to have him pardoned.

JUST FOLKS

LAWYERS

John Doe does not like lawyers.
John says he has had experience with two who gave him his present opinion of the legal profession.
One of these lawyers opposed John in court and the other was for him.
John says the first fellow beat him and the other fellow lost the case and there you are and what chance did he have? Indeed, yes, but never theless and not withstanding and without the slightest desire to super-impose the reflections of our superlative intelligence on a suffering public, still—

Lawyers have their uses!

Those with contradictions to this assertion please step forward.
None! Therefore we come to the ground root of our argument which is that lawyers are just folks and useful.

For instance, one of Barbourville's distinguished sons does something especially distinctive, not connected with getting into the penitentiary, and it is desired to do him honor.
How do we do it? We decide on a public meeting, commonly called a mass meeting on account of the fact that there is generally a baker's dozen present at such affairs and, when the grave question as to what we shall do is brought before the thoughtful citizens, on whom do we call to express the thoughts of the great, dumb, oyster-like brotherhood, known as Mr.
General Citizen? The lawyer, of course, and we appeal to these Caesars of the body politic because they have ideas and know how to express them. Ideas are what the world pays for and it is the legal luminaries of our great county who can and do express them. We laymen may have ideas, but they are like the pearl that the oyster shell guards and which only occasionally sees the light.

Whom then, I repeat in thunderous tones, or should so thunder were I possessed of the necessary legal lightning, or on whom do we call to solve the vexed question? The query is to provoke our risibilities.
There is but one answer. The Legal Profession.

While we unlegalized ones have been tuning under the collar, waiting for one solitary ray of intelligence to trickle into our cellular gray matter, the legal collar of our Hackstonian friend has remained seated, calm in the knowledge that above it rises a dome of thought well versed in the art of penetrating labyrinths, finding a passage thru cul-de-sacs or of developing the sixth sense to the Nth power. The united gray matter of the assembled unlegalized ones at last receives an inspiration, a cry comes out of Macedonia, Blinks! Blinks!

Calm, cool and with perfect sangfroid, Blinks rises, clears his organ reeds and begins.

"Mr. Chairman, friends and fellow citizens. You do me too much honor in calling on me when you have such oysters among you as Mr.
Silent, Mr. Dum-Dum and Mr. Fizzle.
However, to our unisons, as Spencer says in the Patrie Queen, (don't look it up.) As I understand the question, Mr. Chairman, and I believe I do understand it, the object of this meeting is to decide as to how we shall best do honor to Hon. Jones M.
Binkle, recently returned from Africa, where he sought out the benighted, shirtless African and bestowed upon 9,999 of these the garment of our civilization. These shirts, gentle men, were flannel that they might last the longer and therefore be a more lasting testimonial to the great people who were so moved by the bare suggestion of a bare skin that they sought this means of removing what might become a public menace from the world. Mr. Binkle is authority for the statement that many of the Africans lusted upon putting their legs thru the arms of the shirts, and this is but un-other inefragable proof that If the African needs anything, he needs shirts. Therefore, and under these circumstances and knowing the zeal of our women and that every one of them is a missionary of civilization, I move you, Mr. Chairman, that the ladies do the work providing the entertainment for our great friend Binkle, than whom no greater man has gone forth from our city."

These times and seasons are, however, as it were, the mere backwash of what the lawyer means to us.
We have a will to make, a piece of property to make safe for posterity, a new business venture which has elements of danger for the untrun-ned mind and a hundred and one problems which would drive us into the funny house, were it not for our good friend the lawyer man, who guides our feet into the right path, eases our minds of a burden of care, says it is alright and it is alright.

The lawyer man is just folks like ourselves, with a well balanced mind and a kindly heart which sees the good and the bad in us and charitably makes the best of us, and when the lawyer dies, he will win his greatest case as his own pleader when he arrives at the eternal court.

KING NEWS

Hot dry weather, berry picking and killing chiggers are all the go now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Logan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Logan.

Messrs. John Bryant and Bub Hall made their usual visit to Swan Lake on Sunday.

Mr. W. T. Prichard went to Harlan Sunday where he expects to work this fall.

Misses Lizzie Baker, Delora Prichard and Neva Elliott attended church at Poplar Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Farmer, of Prichard Branch, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shoaf of Stony Fork, Saturday night and Sunday.

H. M. and Orange Prichard have taken a job of hauling tanbark for J. F. Perkins, of Poplar Creek.

Mrs. Ella Elliott, of Prichard Branch, is quite sick at this writing.

MUSICK OF THE MOUNTAINS

The announcement of Ryland C.
Musick, of Jackson, Breathitt County for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General was followed by the general endorsement of the newspapers and lawyers, over the state, being those who best know him. He has made a strong impression on the people and his nomination seems assured. His nomination will add much strength to the ticket. advt.

FACTS FOR FARMERS WAITS HIT SPUDS

The moment the gardener in town or the farmer in the country finds potatoes with warts growing out of their eyes or potatoes which have become a sort, black, spiky mass, he should get in touch with Mr. R.
C. Faulwetter, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at the experiment station at Lexington where he will spend the summer. Mr. Faulwetter has been sent to Kentucky to be on the outlook for the potato wart a dangerous disease which came from Europe on seed potatoes.
This disease has appeared in Pennsylvania so there is a chance of its making its appearance in Kentucky this year.

sioner.

COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

Louisville, Ky., June 27th, 1919.
Mrs. R. W. Cole, Harboursville, Ky.

My dear Mrs. Cole:
As you have doubtless been advised, the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense, Kentucky Division, has concluded its work and passed out of existence.

Founded as a national organization for the war emergency, the W.
C. C. N. D. enjoyed the distinction of having been the first and only body of women to engage in war work under Government supervision. That its labors, generally speaking, were accomplished with unusual ability and fidelity to the best interests of the nation, is something of which I feel quite sure we are all very proud.

I should indeed be remiss in my duty, as well as recreant to that spirit of friendship and good will which I feel for all of our County Unit Chairmen, and for the women who have worked with them so in-defatigably, did I not take this last opportunity to express my appreciation of your efforts and my very great happiness in having worked with you.

So far as I am aware, I close my work as Secretary with the friendship and good will of each one of our County Chairmen. I am glad to be able to feel that this is true and I trust that the relations which have proved so pleasant and cordial may ever serve as a happy reminder of the days when we worked together to achieve a common end.

You and your women had the inmate, the grit, the will to win and you inspired your men and boys with courage and hope; you imbued the other women with whom you came in contact with that same spirit.
You were the sentiment makers of your community as well as the ex-ponents of the true meaning of those two words—service and sacrifice—words which contain the real definition of patriotism.

We shall not, I hope, soon forget the important lessons of the war, chief among which is the still growing need of thrift and Americanization.

My best wishes and kindest regards go with you always. It has been a joy to have been associated with you in the splendid work of the Woman's Committee.

Sincerely yours,
Isabel Lewis,
Secretary, W. C. C. N. D., Kentucky
Division.

MRS. BURN'S LETTER

Here is a letter that is certain to prove of interest to people in this vicinity, as cases of this sort occur in almost every neighborhood, and people should know what to do in like circumstances:

Savannah, Mo., Oct. 12, 1916.
"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy to dozens of people since I first used it."

When The Day Is Over

When the household cares and the worries of everyday life have dragged
you down,
made you unhappy, and there is nothing in life but headache, backache and worry, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Dr. Pierce fifty years ago.

Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases.
He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening, bearing-down pains, irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it, in liquid or tablet form.

KNOX COUNTY BOYS RETURN FROM GERMANY

Chas. G. Black, son of Mrs. A. W.
Hopper, and Chas. E. Terrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Esom Terrell of Swan Lake, Ky., are back from Germany following nearly eleven months service in France and with the Army of Occupation in Germany.

They first went to Camp Taylor, Kentucky, from there to Camp Beauregard, La., and to Camp Mills, L.
I., en-transit to La Havre, France.
On September 7th the convoy was attacked, the day being one of the protestless imaginable. The American sub chasers were present but the submarine, which was not seen, rose to the left and got the boat next to the one on which they were traveling. The torpedoed boat ran ashore on the Sicily Islands to the south of England and none of the soldiers were lost tho some of the stokers were killed by the force of the explosion.

Messrs. Black and Terrell were with the 39th Division which was used for replacements and which was attached to the 7th Corps. The boys were with the 89th and 90th Divisions and were in the Mensenger engagements with headquarters at Beaune-Vaux. Not a man of the Company was lost in the three days engagement from November 8th to 11th tho the Division itself was badly shot up.

After the signing of the armistice they spent five months with the Army of Occupation at Minderlitz-gen some fifty kilometers from Coblenz. This is a great grape country and the people are very hard working. Having no horses the Germans milked the cows, attached them to the plows and used them in the place of horses.

They left Germany May 6th, sailed from Brest June 26th and arrived in Boston June 30th and were discharged at Camp Taylor July 9th.

EARL STANFILL HOME

Earl Stanfill, who served with the Evacuation Ambulance Company No.
66 in France, came in Saturday, July 12th, being discharged from Camp Taylor July 11th.

Mr. Stanfill was first sent to the Motor Transport School at Indianapolis, being transferred to Allentown Penn. and from there to Camp Merritt, N. J. thence overseas. He landed at Liverpool, England, spending four days in that country, going to Winchester and Southampton from which point he embarked for La-Havre, France.

His first section was at La Rochelle Villa and from there he made convoys to Tours and Dijon. He was then attached to the Chief Surgeon's office at Tours being on detached duty, with the French army, evacuating army hospitals, or in other words carrying the wounded from the front line hospitals to the base hospitals, the load varying according to the severity of the fighting.
Mr. Stanfill started home February 1st, got as far as Lemans and was there assigned to a Camp Hospital.
This was in the center of the American embarkation area and it was part of his duty to take sick soldiers to the hospital. He again started home June 10th, sailed from St. Nazaire, France, June 22nd and landed at Newport News July 2nd and was discharged at Camp Taylor July 11th.

THRIFT FOLLOWS BARBECUE

On occasion the organizers of War Savings Societies have their lots cast in most happy places, and the reports that find their way to headquarters are of real interest.

O. P. Spark, one of the Arkansas field workers, on a recent visit to Danville, Yell County, went thru one of these experiences, and his report to Moorhead Wright, State Director at Little Rock, was replete with a happy relation of the facts.

Spark was evidently unaware that the members of the Yell County Boy's Pig Club and the Girl's Canning Club were to have a field day on that particular time. The downtown streets were deserted, many of the stores were closed and inquiry revealed the reason.

Spark followed the throngs and was just in time to reach the place of assembly before the huge joints of juicy beef, lambs and fowls had been removed from spits placed above trenches dug deep in the ground, where a bed of glowing embers was even yet adding a coat of brown to the meats, and was freeing savory odors that conjured up visions of the feasts enjoyed by Robin Hood and his forest rovers in the heart of Sherwood Forest in Merrie England.

And when the feast was spread the vlands were attacked with a gastro and ample justice was done.

Then the boys told about their venture in pigs, and the handwork of the girls in the art of food preservation was dwelt on in words, and their wares sampled.

But this was not all. Thrift had a place on the program. J. C. Chambers told of the value of the Campaign of Thrift planned by the U. S.
Treasury Department, and how what the boys and girls had accomplished was the outgrowth of that campaign.

He explained the value of the War Savings Societies that were sprang-ing up all over the country, and told the boys and girls that all they had accomplished would count for nothing did they not practice real saving. He told of the advantages of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps, which he said would pave the way for prosperity when those who are boys and girls now have reached manhood and womanhood.
Chambers said there should be at least 95 such circles in Yell County.

S. L. SHIELDS HOME

S. L. Shields, of Hymar, and wife were in town Saturday. Mr. Shields entered the army June 1911 and was stationed at Fort Banks, Winthrop, Mass., where he occupied the position of Company Baker, an exceedingly important post since an army travels on its stomach as well as on its feet. His department made 2,000 pounds of bread a day and the bread was good. Mr. and Mrs. Shields, nee Miss Florence Butterfield, were married June 18th, 1914, at Boston, Mass. Mrs. Shields is now enjoying her first experience of living in Old Kentucky, having arrived at Barbour-ville Thursday, July 10th. The young couple are staying with Mr.
Leonard Woolum of Hymar, uncle of Mr. Shields.

LAME SHOULDER

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles. All that is needed is absolute rest and a few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment. Try it.

PERSEVERANCE, PERSEVERANCE—work, endless work led to the great achievement—the Atlantic Cable; with

Reif's SPECIAL

the case is the same. The invention, the discovery of how to produce what is thoroughly satisfying and non-alcoholic did not come easy. It took perseverance, endless work.

But now the reward of achievement comes in the knowledge that poor thirsty souls can have something that really hits that old thirst spot.

BY COLLY, IT'S GOOD!

THE JOY OF LIVING.

To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.

Notice

I will speak at the Court House in the interest of my candidacy on the 4th Monday in July, this being County Court Day.

Torrent and Lakelet.
The stream of modern literature represented by the books and periodicals on the crowded counters is a turbulent and clamorous torrent, dashing along among the rocks of criticism, over the pebbles of the world's daily events; trying to make itself heard and seen amidst the hoarse cries of the politicians and the rumbling wheels of traffic. The classic is a still lakelet, a mountain tarn, fed by springs that never fail, its surface never ruffled by storms—always smiling a welcome to its visitor.—Holmes.

Troubles of an Expert.
"Another member of the staff wants a raise—says he can't live on his salary of $40 a week." "Who is it?" "Hullem, the bachelor editor of our woman's page. He writes those interesting articles on how to support a family of four on $15 a week."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Hard to Break Out of This.
One of the oddest of jails is at Clifton, Ariz., which lies in an important copper region. This jail comprises four large apartments hewn in the side of a hill of solid quartz. The entrance is in a boxlike vestibule built of heavy masonry and the gates have three sets of steel bars.

His Tribute.
Hans was on a visit to his grandfather's farm, and for the first time saw a lot of bees making honey. After looking at them with deep interest for a few moments he said: "Well, I must say they are certainly a wonderful lot of little animals."

The highest spire in the world is that of Ulin cathedral, which is 530 feet in height; it was completed in 1890.

Barbourville People Come Out As Frankly Hele as Elsewhere

Barbourville people publicly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. This paper is publishing Barbourville cases from week to week. It is the same everywhere. Homo testimony in home papers. Doan's are praised in fifty thousand signed statements, published in 3,000 communities. Barbourville people are no exception. Here's a Barbourville statement:

R. F. Harbin, Main Street, Barbourville, says: "My work is hard on my back and kidneys. At one time I got down with my back so that I couldn't work. I had rheumatic twinges in my joints and limbs and my kidneys acted irregularly, especially at night, which broke my rest. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Costello Drug Company and they promptly rid me of the backaches and the rheumatic twinges. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine I have ever used."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Harbin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

8500 IN CASH PRIZES FOR OVERSEAS EXPERIENCES

Nearly every lad who went overseas has an interesting story to tell—pathetic, amusing or tender—of some child in France. Perhaps it is a little Pierre who crept in to eat with him at mess; or a Marceline whom he found, white-faced and terror-stricken, in the cellar of a ruined house; or Henri whose father was killed in the trenches and whose mother was taken to Germany by the enemy; or it may have been Almee who insisted upon being adopted by the "American." At any rate, there is always a story and a child.

For such stories as these, or simple ones telling of the friendship between the French child and the American soldier, 178 cash prizes are offered. Soldiers, sailors, marines, men and women who were in France during the war in any capacity, or their families, sweethearts and friends, are invited to compete for these prizes. Literary ability is not required. Anybody who can write a letter home can write well enough for the purpose of this contest. Conditions of the contest can be secured by writing "The Fatherless Children of France, Room 631, 410 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago." There is no expense attached to entering the contest, which is open to anybody who wants to compete. Mothers, sisters, sweethearts and wives should turn over their letters from Bill or Tom or Jack which they have been so proudly treasuring, and hand up the references to the little French children. Just some one little incident told simply in a letter may win a prize!

HEALTH IS WEALTH

The young man who was robust was able to fight for Uncle Sam; the man who was not physically fit was turned down. Although business does not turn a man down who is not normal in health, still he does not have a full chance to make good in life. John D. Rockefeller offered a million dollars for a first class stomach because he realized the value of health in hard cash.

Dr. J. I. Wittenburg will tell his audience something about "Health is Wealth" during the Farmers' Community Meeting. Men, women and children are all vitally interested in health and are sure to be interested in this talk.

MID-SUMMER SNAP SHOTS

Another brood sow on every farm will mean additional profit.

A flock of sheep on every farm should bring in rich returns to the farmers of this State.

Care should be taken in loading stock during hot weather. Don't load hogs hot; don't overload a car; don't use saw dust bedding in hot weather; don't load hogs in a filthy car; see that the ears are in a proper condition. Many thousands of dollars could be saved annually by giving careful attention to the proper handling of live stock.

RED CROSS WORK

Since the first call to arms, the chief aim of the American Red Cross has been comfort and welfare of the American soldier. Care of the returning soldier falls into three branches: Miscellaneous Service for the comfort and welfare of Soldiers, Home Service in the Camp, and Recreation.

It is difficult to say which of these is the most important, so greatly does each depend on the other, weaving an all-covering mantle of comfort and relief that spreads over each and every soldier.

The soldier is not discouraged, but he can't help thinking, as he lies there in the base hospital, with his stump of an arm or his twisted knee, and waits for the transport that will take him home.

When the day comes at last, he is carried aboard on a stretcher. Beside him are a pair of new pajamas, a Red Cross comfort kit and plenty of "smokes." Aboard there is a Red Cross man with his hands filled with "extras." On the way to the debarkation hospital, there is the same old Red Cross smile and the succession of sandwiches, pies and coffee. At night, while the train speeds toward the army hospital near his own town, there are the canteen women at the stopping places.

When the soldier reaches the convalescent stage, there is the Red Cross house with its home-like features, easy chairs, rugs, music, games, books, newspapers and magazines—the fireplace, the sun parlor or the porch, according to the season. On fine days there is the Motor Corps that takes the soldier for delightful country spins. It is by these many small attentions, that mean so much, that the Red Cross endeavors to make "getting well" easy. A sick or wounded soldier does not get well soon if his mind is not happily attuned and his personal troubles at rest.

Sick, convalescent or well, a soldier may have recourse to Home Service, one phase of Red Cross work. Anxiety over home affairs, uncertainty over the safety and welfare of loved ones, have done more to weaken the morale of the men than the most grievous wounds received in battle, or even the endurance of short rations, or trying days and nights under fire. Red Cross Home Service endeavors to bridge the gap between the soldier and his home, and to act as the intervening agent to whom all petitions may be trusted and all cares consigned. Five hundred Red Cross Home Service representatives are working in the camps of this country and in the army hospitals, with their 50,000 patients.

Among the latest innovations are the banking agencies, established in twenty-two demobilization camps, under the authority of some nearby clearing house or bank, enabling a discharged soldier to deposit part of his discharge money for transmission to any bank he may designate. In exchange for a non-negotiable receipt. At Camp Taylor alone, $152,215 was deposited in this way within the space of eleven days.

The breadth and scope of the Red Cross program, planned for the benefit of the returning soldier, is readily appreciated. He cannot feel neglected or forlorn as long as the Red Cross is with him, and surely no possible comfort, no possible need has been overlooked. The three great arms work together amicably, smoothly, jointly, each performing the tasks that fall within its immediate field, yet extending its activity to dovetail happily with the other branches. In the field, in the camp, in the home, the Red Cross is omnipresent wherever the soldier goes or wherever his interests lie. It knows no artificiality, in its light against sickness, worry, despair or trouble, as they affect the American soldier.

Maybe you THINK they're all right and maybe you're wrong about it. Cloudy urine, backache, drowsy, tired, nervous, loss of appetite, puffiness under the eyes, these are SOME of the symptoms of kidney trouble, and they call for

Ho Throw Calomel Away
Wm. S. Prince of Birmingham, Ala., writes: "I was suffering with indigestion, biliousness and kidney trouble. I tried calomel and the doctors for about a month. Finally I tried DR. THACHER'S LIVER AND BLOOD SYRUP and the first bottle relieved me very much. I am sound and well, can eat anything."

Interesting Experiment.

A distinguished scientist has revived an after-luncheon artificially by means of the following experiment: After remaining in darkness for some minutes, he dashed a light onto his hand. He then went to bed in total darkness and slept through the night. Before opening his eyes in the morning he again dashed a light, but this time on his eyes. By this means he revived the after-luncheon of his hand in front of him, although he had not seen it since the previous night.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Barometric Violin.

Abram Moses, a violinist of Baltimore, is the possessor of what might be called a barometric violin. Some time after Mr. Moses bought it, he noticed that at certain times it exhaled a strange and subtle fragrance, like an aroma of Oriental incense. Later, he observed that this fragrance was noticeable only when the weather was about to become damp. He obtained the violin in Paris some years ago when he was studying there.

Inconstancy Ever Unpopular.

Nothing that is not a real crime makes a man appear so contemptible and little in the eyes of the world as inconstancy, especially when it regards religion or party. In either of these cases, though a man perhaps does not his duty in changing his side, he not only makes himself hated by those he left, but is seldom heartily esteemed by those he comes over to.—Addison.

More or Less?

Hickup had decided to turn over a new leaf, and he couldn't help letting everybody know. "I have resolved for the New Year," he said, feeling if his halo was on straight, "that I shall not drink any more." "But, my dear fellow," protested a building Thomas, "you couldn't drink any more. The point is have you resolved to drink any less?"—London Answers.

Understanding Each Other.

Those who fancy themselves not understood by the people with whom they have to associate might find some consolation in the fact that they themselves are not taking any great trouble to understand others. We are really not so complex or peculiar as we often imagine, and perhaps we are not worth so much study as we demand.—Exchange.

Reptiles That Shed Their Skin.

Among the reptiles many, like the lizards and snakes, shed the whole skin at once, which they contrive to cast in a single piece, wriggling out of the old skin and leaving it behind them in the form of a hollow sheath, a mere ghost of the wearer. The frogs and toads contrive to make some profit on the transaction, since they eat their own cast-off garments.

Billion.

In the United States a billion is a thousand millions. In Great Britain and European countries, the progression runs regularly, tens of millions, hundreds of millions, thousands of millions; tens of thousands of millions, hundreds of thousands of millions, thousands of thousands of millions, billions (that is a million of millions).

Willie's Excuse.

The slang expression "hard-boiled egg" to denote a disagreeable person reminds us of a youngster who could not eat an egg without feeling distressed. Chided one day for speaking rudely to his aunt, he said: "I can't help it mother; she affects me just like an egg."—Boston Transcript.

FROCKS OF SHEER FABRICS

What every woman knows—among other things—is, that nothing is quite so satisfying as a fine white frock for summertime. Embroidered voiles and swisses, beautiful and practical, are here to lend the charm and refinement of white to summer wardrobes. In the picture a plain and embroidered voile is shown made up into a short sleeved frock and finished off, with a girle and full bow of narrow ribbon. The underskirt is made of the embroidered voile, showing a pattern in which bands run around the figure. A short underbodice of this has elbow sleeves and a drape of plain voile which carries out the idea revealed in the long and full puffers of plain voile in the skirt.

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL

To the voters of the 17th Senatorial District of Kentucky composed of the counties of Laurel, Knox and Bell. After considering the interest of the party and the State ticket and being asked for myself and Moss to make some agreement that only one of us should be a candidate and after considering same that the State Campaign Committee was desirous of there being a settlement of this matter, I have withdrawn for the reasons set out herein. And I have decided to do all I can to secure the election of the entire State ticket. I feel that in Mr. Moss you have a perfect gentleman as a candidate and I believe that he will make an efficient Senator and will work for the interest of the entire people of his District and the State. I want to thank my friends for their loyal support during my candidacy and hope that I will be able some day to repay each of you for the interest you have taken in my candidacy since I became a candidate for State Senator.

Given under my hand this July 10th, 1919. C. W. Haverly.

SHALL WE HALT OR ADVANCE.

One year ago when the fate of the world was hanging in the balance the American soldier in the front line trenches in France was given the word to start for Berlin.

To the glory of American arms, when the doughboy was ordered to go ten miles he did not halt and say, "No, I won't go ten miles." I'll just go eight." He went the full ten miles and many more and democracy was saved.

Last fall the American people pledged the largest sum over subscribed in the history of man for a similar purpose; to minister to the physical, mental and spiritual needs of men in the service everywhere. The campaign was carried on by seven great agencies, the Y. M. C. A., the National Catholic War Council (Knights of Columbus), the Jewish Welfare Board, the War Camp Community Service, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army.

To date the payment of those subscriptions have covered eight miles on a ten mile advance. The army and navy are far from being demobilized. Every penny subscribed in that campaign is needed. Kentucky is a little better than the rest of the states in average collections, but stands eighth in the thirteen states in the Central Army department. Three states, North Dakota, Kansas and Iowa, are over the top. Then come Ohio, Illinois, Nebraska, Colorado and Kentucky. Indiana is third from the last.

Subscribers to the fund everywhere are urged to pay up and keep faith with the American soldier, sailor and marine. Payments should be made at once to local treasurers.

PERUNA A WONDERFUL MEDICINE

Rundown and Unable to Work

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna as it was beneficial in restoring my health when I was all run down from overwork and nervous worry and was unable to take up my regular work. A friend recommended Peruna and said he was sure that it would restore my strength. I soon found that I was getting better and in a little over two months I was able to resume my duties with renewed vigor and strength. It certainly is a wonderful medicine to vitalize the system."
